JUDGE BOWLBY HAS RETURNED

VERY INTERESTING OBSERVA-TIONS WERE MADE BY HIM
WHILE ON HIS TRIP TO WASH-INGTON AND IDAHO.

Judge J. Q. A. Bowlby has just returned from a trip to Walla Walla, Lewiston and Spokane and in an interview with an Astorian reporter stated that all the country in those districts is prosperous. The crop of grain is abundant and prices are good. Each of the above cities has held its annual fair, and smaller places have fine exhibits of fruits. The country from California to British Columbia has made special displays of fruit this year. The fruit yield has been large and apples, pears, etc., have made so fine a showing in different localities, that the contest, hereafter, will be in quality, rather than size. The people at Lewiston are proud of their grapes, and think that they will beat California grapes, for wine. One of the important factors tending to the advancement of each of the cities, is the railroad and interurban trolley lines, running in many directions from the cities, which bring the people in to trade and make the farm lands valuable. Garden and orchard lands, similar to those in Clatsop county, are held at from $100 to $300 per acre. In the Potlach district, an excellent wheat locality, much attention is paid to potato growing, individual owners having from 5 to 75 acres each. The yield averages 50 bushels per acre, and the price, is 90 cents per sack.

What would a Clatsop farmer think of such a small yield and price?
Lewiston is reached by boats of the O. R. & N. and the railroad of the Northern Pacific and in a few days the road of the O. R. & N. will be there also. The people are looking for a road from Huntington, down the Snake, and for one or two new eastern roads, to come directly across the country, and expect that Lewiston will then outstrip Spokane.
The latter place now claims a population of 96,000 and expects the new railroads from the east to come its way instead of by Lewiston. The mines contribute $20,000 per year to Spokane beside the value of the timber and farming products of a very large surrounding country and notwithstanding the many railroads running into the city, she is operating and extending trolley lines out into various sections an idea of the value of land, in that section, can be gained from the fact that suburban land, three miles from the center of the city, is worth fifteen hundred and two thousand dollars per acre.
Judge Bowlby's statements are very interesting and instructive. He is a keen observer and his interest in the future of this section of the country prompts him to look into such matters thoroughly.
On the completion of the bridges from Vancouver to Linton, Spokane, by way of Kennewick, will have direct connection with Astoria, and the prosperity enjoyed by those sections will be duplicated in Clatsop county.

THE HAWAIIAN LADIES ARRIVE

COMMITTEE HEADED BY MAYOR
WISE RECEIVE THEM—LUNCHEON AND TRIP AROUND HARBOR
—GONE TO SEASIDE.

The visit of the eight Hawaiian young ladies to Astoria yesterday with Mrs.
Edyth Tozier Weathered as chaperon and preceptress, was a very pleasant event, the details of which were sent in a special cable to the Evening Bulletin of Honolulu last night and these published under flaring first-page headlines.
The party arrived on the noon train from Portland and were met at the depot by members of the reception committee of the Chamber of Commerce headed by Mayor Wise and escorted to the Occident Hotel where a luncheon was served, a ladies' committee with Mrs. C.
L. Houston as chairwoman greeting the guests in the parlor of the hotel and entertaining them during the afternoon and evening. The ladies assisting Mrs.
Houston to do the honors of the occasion were Mrs. W. E. Tallant, Miss Harriet Tallant, Mrs. W. E. Schimpff, Mrs. Dr.
R. J. Pilkington, Mrs. J. H. Whyte.
At the dining table, Mayor Wise sat as host and before the guests arose, he extended to them a most cordial welcome and explained in choice language Astoria was honored by the presence of that Astoria was honored by the presence of the pretty maidens from the far-away Western Isle.
Manager Whyte of the Chamber of Commerce had prepared for each of the young ladies from Hawaii a ribboned key, the kind that has been adopted as the jewel emblem of this organization, and the mementoes were found by the guests at their plates.
President Welch of the Chamber of Commerce expressed some pleasing sentiments.
There were nine of the young ladies in Mrs. Weathered's party, but only eight of them were with her in the party, Miss Bernice K. Dwight remaining in her room in Portland slightly indisposed with a severe cold. Those with Mrs.
Weathered were Miss M. Hester Lemon, Hattie L. Saffrey, Lillian H. Mundon, Katherine Sadler, Rose L. Aloiau, California Lucas, Daisy Todd, Emma M.
Rose.

It will be observed that only one of the young ladies has a distinctively Hawaiian name, Miss Aloiau.
After the luncheon was served, the guests met a number of the citizens of the city and their wives and daughters, after which they were photographed by Mr. Woodfield in front of the First National Bank.
Mr. E. W. Tallant, the well known business man of this city, surprised his fellow citizens by being able to talk with the Hawaiian young ladies in their native tongue, he having lived in Hawaii in 1873. During his residence in Honolulu he was present at the wedding of the notable Sam Parker whose name is heralded almost as far as the name of the islands themselves. And to make yesterday's event all the more interesting, a niece of Sam Parker's was in the party and Mr. Tallant had the pleasure of talking over old times and acquaintances with her, both in the English and Hawaiian tongues.
Several of the young ladies knew personally former Astorians now residing in Honolulu and were more than pleased to meet the relatives and friends of their acquaintances there. A sister of Mrs.
Heilborn now resides in Honolulu.
The young ladies were each and everyone highly educated and some of them could speak as many as seven languages.
They are exceptionally good singers and it may safely be said that any one of them knows more popular and familiar American songs, ancient and modern, than most people who live in the states.
And they know these songs through and through from end to end, not having merely a superficial idea of songs as most of the continent people have.
Mr. Albert Tozier, brother of Mrs.
Weathered, accompanied the party from Portland, as did Mr. F. R. Johnson, general freight agent of the Canadian Pacific, and Mr. E. L. Cardle, general freight agent for this road.

Several of the young ladies are school teachers and one, Miss Todd, is a wireless telegraph operator, the only woman operator of wireless in the world.
During the afternoon the guests were taken for a trip on the river in the launch Patrol, through the courtesy of Collector Carnahan and one of the young ladies, Miss Lucas, learned to direct the wheel before the trip had been nearly completed.
The party left for Seaside on the night train, Mr. and Mrs. James W.
Welch, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Schimpff and Mrs. C. L. Houston accompanying them.
Today Dan Moore of the Seaside Hotel will take them for a drive to Elk Creek and this evening they will return to Portland.
After returning from the boat ride yesterday evening the party paid a visit to the newspaper offices and to Mayor Wise's store. Each of the young ladies exacted a promise of the Mayor that he would send to them an autograph photograph. They were especially well pleased with the stories he told them after lunch and will likely remember these a long while.
Most of the young ladies are congregationalists, although some are Presbyterians and Episcopalians, while one is a Catholic.

The key mementoes which the young ladies took away with them will remain a living advertisement of Astoria in the faraway American city.
The trip is made as the result of a voting contest conducted by the Evening Bulletin of Honolulu for the purpose of increasing circulation, much in the same way that such contests are conducted in the states. And one thing is quite sure, Miss Edyth Weathered is the princess uncrowned of all publicity women on the Pacific Coast, if not then some.
The young ladies who made up the party were talented, cultured and refined and while they are making this trip largely as a matter of education, yet they will not be able to learn much outside of geography. Their teachers have been too thorough for that.
And as a matter of fact there were colleges in Honolulu, established by the valiant missionaries of old long before there were even log cabin schools in any of the Pacific Coast states. And now missionaries are in turn being sent out to China and Japan and the Philippines from the Hawaiian Islands.
If all the peoples of the earth were as easily assimilated by the English-speaking race as are the Hawaiians, then the brotherhood of man would indeed most speedily be established.
Anthropologically, the Hawaiians belong neither to the brown or Malay race or to any other race so far as classifications can be made, although they are sometimes classed in the Malay race. As a matter of fact they appear with good reason to be a separate and distinct people from all others, and now they will soon be entirely American, perhaps even to the extent of forgetting their native tongue. And above all, they are a people greatly to be admired. The young ladies who visited Astoria yesterday were girls any one might well be proud of.

Change of Firm.
Mr. Ello has sold the Bond Street Market to F. Bakker and Leo, who will conduct it in the future.

How to Cure a Cold.
The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger of pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W.
L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by Where shall we dine? There should be no question about that. If you have no appetite, but feel that you should dine, drop into the Palace and, if you
